Sermon Discussion Questions: Ruth 2

What stuck out to you from today's sermon and the scripture passage?

When you think about Ruth's story, how does God's providence show up to provide for her and Naomi?

Are there times in your life when God's providence has been particularly evident in the way that he's cared for you?

How has God given you eyes to see the needs of others? Are there any particular needs that stand out to you in a particular way?

The songwriter, Leonard Cohen, has a line, "There is a crack in everything. That's how the light gets in." Reflecting on that, how have the cracks in your life allowed God's light to come in to your life?

We are all needy people who are put in a position to help other needy people. How can we be helping one another as we live the Christian life in community?
