Sermon Discussion Questions: 1 Samuel 17:1-12, 31-54

What are your takeaways from this week's sermon and sermon text?

When have you found yourself fixated on your own abilities and not who God is and what he brings to the table?

What are some issues with sin, or your present circumstances, where you need to look away from yourself and spend more time looking at Christ and asking him to work?

How does knowing that Jesus is the hero of the story, help you to start to missionally engage the world?

How can we be praying for one another this week?
