Sermon Discussion Questions: Daniel 3:8-27

The world, full of darkness, is constantly pushing against our walk with Jesus.
What things have you put into place to help you overcome the world's influence?

There are times in life when we are confronted about the faith we stand on.
What type of feelings does that bring when it happens? Are you ok with losing everything to stand for Christ no matter the consequences?

How has the fiery furnace of life helped your relationship with Jesus grow?

In what ways has the fiery furnace developed you to become more mature in your walk with Jesus?

The Hebrew boys came out the fire unharmed and people were amazed.
What is a testimony in your life when God brought you out of something that could have broken you in a profound way?
