Sermon Series: Kingdom Stories

Passage: Luke 10:25-37

1. What are some things that stuck out to you from the sermon and passage this week?
2. Martin Luther said that God's commandments often act as a floor that we are not to fall below, a ceiling we are to reach for, and a mirror to reveal our hearts. How do you see this parable providing a floor, a ceiling, and a mirror? And what does that look like in your life?
3. Who are our neighbors and how can we be serving them? Individually? As a group? As a church?
4. In the sermon, Simon talked about how our compassion flows out of the experience of receiving compassion. When have you received compassion and how has that shaped your actions?
5. Other than asking for compassionate hearts, how can we be praying for one another this week?
