A Compassionate Savior

Passage: Luke 5:12-16

1. How do you approach Jesus when you are dealing with suffering (physically or mentally) in your life? Is it with a childlike humility or a “you better do it” attitude?
2. Jesus broke rules of tradition by touching and entering the space of a man with leprosy. How do you break free from the opinions of others to move into the space of the outcast?
3. How does Jesus show his compassion for you as his child in your life?
4. The man was restored by a sacrifice to be clean and accepted by the community. Give testimony on how Jesus, being the ultimate sacrifice on the cross, brought a better community into your life. How has acceptance into God’s family blessed you?
